PATHS UNIVERSITY

STUDENT HANDBOOK

Academic Year 2026–2027

Peaceful Actions for the Enhancement of Human Services

Important Information Regarding Matriculation

Policies regarding the enrollment of degree-seeking (matriculating) students at PATHS University are listed below:

- All students will follow the curriculum and the degree completion requirements specified in the University Catalog issued for the year of their initial enrollment as degree-seeking students.
- The University will honor degree completion requirements specified for students in the University Catalog for the year of initial enrollment as long as such enrollment is continuous (summer semesters not included).
- A student who does not maintain continuous enrollment (summer semesters not included) will follow the degree completion requirements specified in the University Catalog issued the year of readmission.
- Any student under any degree program who has re-enrolled in the University after interruptions of more than two semesters will be required to apply for readmission and meet the requirements of the current catalog.
- A student who transfers to another degree program will follow the requirements specified in the University Catalog issued for the year of the transfer to the new degree program.
- Students are held responsible for reading and complying with the University policies contained in the Catalog.
- The Catalog is not an unchangeable contract but, instead, an announcement of present policies only. Implicit in each student's enrollment is an agreement to comply with University rules, policies, and regulations that the University may modify to exercise properly its educational responsibility.

This document is subject to change. Current university policies are located on the university website. Students should refer to <https://pathsu.education/> for policy updates and policies and procedures not addressed in the University Catalog.

The current version, as amended, is posted on the University's website. This handbook is intended to be read together with the current University Catalog and other official university policies.

PATHS University is committed to equal access to its programs, facilities, and employment and to an educational environment in which students are treated with dignity and respect.

18. Academic Standing

Students are expected to maintain satisfactory academic progress toward completion of their program.

Academic standing classifications include:

- Good Standing
- Academic Warning
- Academic Probation
- Academic Suspension
- Academic Dismissal

The specific GPA thresholds, review procedures, and reinstatement requirements should be determined by the applicable University Catalog and approved academic policy.

19. Degree Requirements

Students must complete the degree requirements published in the University Catalog applicable to their enrollment and program. Requirements may include general education, major/core courses, supporting coursework, electives, minimum grades, cumulative GPA, residency or institutional-credit requirements, and other program-specific requirements.

Students should use the official degree plan and meet with their academic advisor regularly to verify progress toward graduation.

20. Student Records (FERPA)

PATHS University complies with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), which protects the privacy of student educational records.

Students have the right to:

- Inspect educational records
- Request corrections to inaccurate records
- Consent to disclosure except as permitted by law

PATHS University Registrar: registrar@pathsu.edu

PATHS University Security: security@pathsu.edu

21. Technology and Student Email

Students are required to activate their PATHS University email account, check email regularly for official communications, and use their university email for official correspondence with faculty and staff.

Technology expectations include:

- Maintain reliable internet access
- Use updated browsers and software
- Protect passwords and account credentials
- Report technical issues promptly

Technology and Security Contact:

- itsupport@pathsu.edu
- security@pathsu.edu

22. Learning Management System (LMS)

The PATHS University Learning Management System is a primary academic platform for course materials, announcements, assignments, discussions, and assessments.

- Log into the LMS regularly
- Review course announcements
- Access assigned course materials
- Submit assignments before deadlines
- Participate in discussions and assessments

LMS Support Contact:

- Student LMS: student-lms@pathsu.edu
- Faculty LMS: faculty-lms@pathsu.edu
- New Student Orientation: nso-lms@pathsu.edu

23. Student Support Services

PATHS University provides or coordinates student support resources designed to promote academic progress and student success, including:

- Academic Advising
- Registrar Services
- Admissions Support
- Financial Services
- Library Resources
- Technical and Security Support
- Disability and Accessibility Services
- Career Services
- Tutoring and Academic Success Resources

Students should contact the appropriate university office when assistance is needed and seek help early.

24. Student Disability Access Center (SDAC)

PATHS University is committed to providing reasonable accessibility services to educational opportunities for eligible students with disabilities, consistent with applicable requirements and university procedures.

Students who need accommodations should contact the appropriate accessibility services office and provide documentation when required. Accommodation requests should be made as early as possible so that the University can review and respond appropriately.

Students should not assume that accommodations are automatically applied without an approved university process.

- Contact: sdac@pathsu.education
- Visit PATHS University Student Disability Access Center \(SDAC\)

25. Library Services

Library services support students' academic research, information literacy, scholarly inquiry, and evidence-based learning.

- Access to electronic and/or digital research resources made available by the University
- Research and information-literacy guidance
- Support locating credible academic sources
- Assistance with citation and scholarly research practices

Specific library databases, access procedures, hours, and services are subject to the resources made available by PATHS University.

26. Financial Information

Students are responsible for understanding tuition, fees, payment deadlines, financial obligations, and any applicable financial assistance requirements associated with their program.

- Review charges and payment information through official university channels.
- Meet published payment deadlines or approved payment arrangements.
- Promptly communicate questions about charges or account balances to the appropriate university office.
- Understand that financial obligations may affect registration, records, or graduation processing when permitted by applicable policy.

The current University Catalog and official financial communications should be consulted for specific rates, deadlines, eligibility rules, and procedures.

27. Refund Policies

Refunds, withdrawals, cancellations, and related financial adjustments are governed by the University's current published refund policy and applicable enrollment dates.

- Students should review refund and withdrawal deadlines before dropping or withdrawing from courses.
- The amount and timing of any refund may depend on the date of withdrawal and applicable university policy.
- Students should contact the appropriate financial office before making a withdrawal decision when financial consequences are a concern.

Specific refund percentages, eligibility requirements, and processing timelines should be confirmed in the current PATHS University financial policy or Catalog.

28. Student Complaints and Appeals

PATHS University encourages students to raise concerns promptly and through the appropriate university process.

- Attempt to resolve the concern informally when appropriate.
- Contact the course instructor or appropriate university office.
- Submit a written complaint when the concern remains unresolved.
- Appeal decisions according to the applicable university policy and published procedure.

Students should maintain copies of relevant communications and supporting documentation.

29. Title IX and Non-Discrimination

PATHS University is committed to providing an educational environment free from discrimination, harassment, and retaliation. The University does not discriminate based on characteristics protected by applicable law and promotes an inclusive community where all students are treated with dignity and respect.

Concerns involving discrimination, harassment, sex-based misconduct, or retaliation should be reported through the University's designated process. Current reporting contacts and procedures should be obtained from the University's official website and applicable policies.

30. Student Organizations

Student organizations and activities can provide opportunities for leadership, collaboration, professional development, service, and community engagement.

- Organizations should operate in accordance with university policies and applicable approval requirements.
- Student leaders are responsible for conducting activities responsibly and respectfully.
- Organizations must not discriminate or engage in conduct prohibited by university policy.
- University resources or branding may be used only as authorized.

31. Career Services

Career services support students and graduates as they explore career options, develop professional skills, and prepare for employment or further education.

- Career exploration and planning
- Resume and professional document development
- Interview preparation
- Professional communication
- Job and internship search guidance
- Graduate and professional school preparation
- Professional networking and career development

Students are encouraged to engage with career resources early rather than waiting until graduation.

32. Code of Academic Ethics

The PATHS University Code of Academic Ethics complements the University's academic integrity expectations. Students are expected to conduct themselves honestly, responsibly, respectfully, and professionally in all academic activities.

- Represent your own work accurately.
- Give appropriate credit to the ideas and work of others.
- Protect the confidentiality and integrity of academic records and assessments.
- Follow instructor directions regarding collaboration, technology, and artificial intelligence.
- Do not fabricate, falsify, or misrepresent academic information.
- Accept responsibility for academic decisions and conduct.

Violations may be addressed under applicable academic integrity and student conduct procedures.
